

Dear statistics students,

welcome to the our statistics lecture series (introductory level).

Please find enclosed the plan for our lecture course.

Lectures will start at 12.30 (Mondays), and tutorials will take place either Wednesdays, 9.00 - 10.30, or Wednesdays, 16.00 - 17.30. These two tutorial groups will be led by Jo Puls, and by Tadziu Hoffmann, respectively.

During the tutorials, you might be asked to discuss your solution of specific problems from the corresponding problem sheet at the blackboard.

At the end of the semester, you will have to pass a written exam,

EXAM: Wednesday, July 27, 8.45 - 10.45 a.m.

and the outcome will determine your final grade.

Best regards, Jo Puls
