

Warm Welcome to the University Observatory Munich!

Welcome!

Congratulations on your acceptance into the Astrophysics Master's Program for the Winter Semester of 2024/2025 at LMU Munich! Munich proves to be an excellent choice for studying Astrophysics, hosting numerous institutes and covering a vast array of topics within Astronomy. Here, some of the world's leading experts have gathered. To acquaint you with our academic landscape, we will guide a tour of the different institutes on Tuesday. On Wednesday and Friday the Faculty will host a Linux/Python Crash Course, which we highly recommend, and on Thursday Prof. Daniel Grün will present the yearly USM Science Day, where you can get to know the research at our institute. The course introduction and presentation of examination formalities is part of a different event on Thursday.
